BellGPT Disclaimer – Terms of Use (Australia)

Effective Date: 25 May 2025
This disclaimer is effective as of the above date and may be updated from time to time without notice.

BellGPT is an AI-powered assistant provided by Bell Resources Limited (ACN 620 586 334) for general informational purposes only. By accessing or using this assistant, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms:

1. General Information Only
   The content provided by BellGPT is general in nature and does not take into account your personal objectives, financial situation, or needs. It should not be relied upon as financial product advice, legal advice, taxation advice, or any other form of professional advice.

2. No Offer or Solicitation
   BellGPT does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities or financial products in any jurisdiction. Any reference to Bell's business model, strategy, or future plans is for illustrative purposes only and may be subject to change.

3. Not a Financial Services Provider
   Bell Resources Limited does not hold an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) and BellGPT does not provide financial services or advice as defined under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). Users are strongly encouraged to seek guidance from a licensed financial adviser before making any investment decisions.

4. Forward-Looking Statements
   BellGPT may contain forward-looking statements based on current expectations, forecasts, and assumptions. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual outcomes to differ materially. No guarantee is made that any future plans or projections will be achieved.

5. Accuracy and Limitations
   While Bell Resources endeavours to ensure that the information provided is accurate and up to date, BellGPT is an automated system and may generate content that is outdated, incomplete, or incorrect. Bell Resources makes no representations or warranties as to the reliability, accuracy, or completeness of any content produced.

6. No Client Relationship
   The use of BellGPT does not create a client, advisory, or fiduciary relationship between you and Bell Resources Limited or any of its affiliates.

7. Refer to Official Documents
   For all investment-related matters, you must refer to the official prospectus, offer document, or disclosure materials issued by Bell Resources Limited, and consult with a licensed financial adviser, lawyer, or accountant before acting.

8. Copyright and Intellectual Property
   All content, concepts, business models, infrastructure strategies, software logic, and related materials accessible via BellGPT are the intellectual property of Bell Resources Limited (ACN 620 586 334) and are protected by Australian and international copyright laws. This includes all AI-generated outputs that incorporate proprietary knowledge, site economics, system design, and strategic frameworks unique to Bell.

No part of the information provided by BellGPT may be copied, reproduced, distributed, published, or adapted in any form without the prior written consent of Bell Resources Limited. Unauthorized use may result in legal action.

9. Usage Limits

BellGPT is provided as an informational tool and is subject to fair usage conditions. Each session is limited to a maximum of 10 user interactions to maintain performance, accessibility, and integrity of the service. Excessive use, automated querying, or any attempt to circumvent usage limits may result in temporary or permanent suspension of access. Bell Resources reserves the right to adjust these limits or restrict access at its sole discretion without prior notice.

10. Analytics and Interaction Tracking

To enhance the performance, usability, and ongoing development of BellGPT, anonymized user interaction data may be collected. This includes the number of questions asked, session timestamps, general topic categories, and referral sources. No personally identifiable information is stored unless explicitly provided by the user (e.g., through a booking form or email submission). By using BellGPT, users consent to this basic form of interaction tracking for internal analytics and service improvement purposes. All data is handled in accordance with applicable data privacy regulations and Bell Resources' internal data governance policies.

11. Governing Law

This disclaimer is governed by the laws of New South Wales, Australia. Any disputes arising from the use of BellGPT shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales.
